Vienna, June 1, N. S.

FIELD Marshal Count Seckendorff is to command the main Army against the Turks, and Prince Hildburgshausen the separate Army which is to act in Bosnia. The former set out from hence on Thursday Morning last for Croatia, where he is to visit all the fortified Places, and be at his Army near Belgrade about the Middle of this Month, at which Time it is supposed he may hear of Marshal Munich's having entred upon Action, and then he will immediately advance into the Turkish Territories without waiting for any farther Orders from hence. Prince Hildburgshausen set out Yesterday, and is to begin the military Operations in Bosnia as soon as he hears from Count Seckendorff that the Muscovites have done the same on their Side. Count Wilsheck, who was the Emperour's Ambassadour in Poland at the late Election, and who is now appointed to be the Emperour's first Plenipotentiary at the ensuing Congress with the Turks, is upon the Point of setting out.

Berlin, June 8, N. S. According to our Advices from Dresden, the King of Poland will, when he comes to Fraustadt, where he is expected on the 10th of next Month, sign the Universalia for the Meeting of the States of Courland, in order to their proceeding to the Election of a new Duke, pursuant to the Constitutions passed by the last General Diet of Pacification. The Duke and Dutchess of Brunswick arrived here on Sunday last, and the Tuesday following the King of Prussia made the General Review of the 20 Battallions which draw together here every Year for that Purpose. His Prussian Majesty is at present taken up in viewing every Day one of the said Regiments singly.

Hague, June 18, N. S. The States of Holland re-assembled to Day, and have chiefly under Consideration the Affair of the Succession of Bergues and Juliers, and the settling a new Tariff for the Trade between these Provinces and the Austrian Netherlands. M. Van Hoey arrived on the 16th Instant from Paris, and Yesterday made Report to the States of his Transactions at the Court of France.

St. James's, June 11.

This Day being the Anniversary of his Majesty's Succession to the Crown, there was a numerous and splendid Appearance at Court of the Nobility, Foreign Ministers, and other Persons of Distinction, to compliment their Majesties on that happy Occasion. The Guns in the Park and at the Tower were fired, and all publick Demonstrations of Joy were made.

Navy Office, June 9, 1737.

These are to give Notice, that the Rt. Hon. the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury have been pleased to appoint Money to pay all the Arrears due to the Pensioners belonging to the Chest at Chatham, to Lady-day, 1737; and that the said Pay will begin on Tuesday the 19th of July, 1737, at the Chest Room in his Majesty's Dock-yard at Chatham.
